

Consumers of Mental Health WA - 2024 Board Nominees

Megan McKrill – Individual Member

Megan McKrill is the CEO of OVIS Community Services (formerly Pat Thomas House), who are the leading provider of family and domestic violence services in the Peel Region. She is a qualified lawyer and brings over 14 years of experience in the legal and community services not-for-profit sectors.

Megan has significant board experience having sat on the OVIS board for over 3 years holding the positions of Chairperson, Vice Chairperson and Secretary. Megan currently sits on the Peel Community Development Group board and Peel Says No To Violence committee. Megan has lived experience of mental ill-health and is the carer of a person who is a consumer of mental health services. Megan has a strong passion for advocacy and elevating the voice of consumers of the mental health system.

Helena Jakupovic – Individual Member

Helena is a senior executive with a background in customer service, operations, transformational change, regulatory change and program management. With over 25 years of experience in wealth management and 10 years in community services in executive roles, Helena holds an Executive Masters in Business Administration, is a Graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors, and is a Non-Executive Director.

Helena is General Manager of the Financial Wellbeing Collective, an innovative collaboration of organisations united to address the drivers and impacts of financial hardship in the WA community. Helena was previously a Non Executive Director on the Keystart Board and was on the Board for the not for profit organisation, Rise. Helena is actively involved with Silverchain Group, a prominent home aged care provider, and is the Independent Chair of the Best Care Committee, a consumer representative on the Board Clinical Governance Committee and member of the National Consumer Advisory Body.